WHY YOU SHOULD UPDATE YOUR WEBSITE

VISUAL APPEAL

First impressions are important. If your website looks outdated and is poorly structured, subconsciously potential clients may think the same about your business.

CONTENT UPDATES

Updating your website content to reflect your current business strength and to position you for future growth is important.

SEO

Search engines regard websites with the most recent content as the most relevant to web users. Your content might be great but if it's the same content as it was 5 years ago then search engines may not think it is relevant.

SECURITY

Website security standards are evolving. SSL is a minimum requirement. Not to mention DDoS (denial of service) protection and WAF (web application firewalls).
